Payments & Refund Policy
FREE TRIAL PERIOD: All new students are entitled to a free trial class before they sign-up. Free beginners' programs are offered in Sept, Jan and March of each year. YOUR COMMITMENT: Although we do not ask for a formal contract, we offer discounted rates based on longer terms of membership. By pre-paying for your membership or giving us post-dated cheques, you are committing to train with us for a set period. We do not offer partial memberships outside what is illustrated in the table above. DUE DATES: All fees are due on the first class of the commitment. If you choose to split your fees into two payments, the balance is due on the first class of the following month. All cheques are made payable to Elmira Karate Dojo. PAYMENT PLANS: Monthly payment plans must be paid through post-dated cheques when you register for membership. NSF payments incur a $25 service fee. Cheques may be dated for the 1st or 15th day of each month.	REFUNDS: We do not issue refunds on cashed cheques or processed payments. We will consider reasonable exceptions in special circumstances, but we will never refund CNGK memberships or the insurance portion of your membership fees. INJURIES OR ILLNESS: If you are unable to train due to a legitimate medical reason lasting longer than a month, we will credit a portion of your pre-paid fees to a future date. We do not offer any credit automatically, so you must request a suspension of membership in writing or email. FAMILY RATES AND SUBSIDIES: Family rates are available for students who live in the same household and pay together. Additional funding may be available for families who qualify for financial aid. Please ask Sensei Barb to confirm eligibility. You may transfer fees to immediate family members without penalty. EXCEPTIONS: We reserve the right to make reasonable exceptions to the Payments and Refund Policy
